

Foxfields Newsletter

1st October 2021

1st Edition

Hello and welcome to our first newsletter! It has been a brilliant first few weeks back and I would like to welcome all new students. I hope they have enjoyed their first term. This is the first edition in a series of newsletters we will be sending throughout the year. Each class will have the opportunity to update you on what they have been doing and any new developments. We will also be putting any calendar dates in or information you may need to know. We hope you enjoy it!

Miss Hardy- Head of School

Class updates:

Upper School: Rosen DT have been cooking some delicious dishes- jam tarts and spaghetti Bolognese! They can now also describe food and talk about their family and friends in French. In Rowling, the class are working on a project within ART/DT where the students will make their very own ukulele! We can't wait to hear some tunes. In Tolkien class, they have been writing letters and looking at information texts. They have enjoyed earning a takeaway pizza, exploring song lyrics and trying new foods.

Lower School: Donaldson had all of their chairs stolen by the evil peas! They made traps to try and catch them but haven't been successful yet. In Dahl, they have been learning about how plants grow. In DT they have been making their own drums and guitars. Lastly in Doyle they have been looking at Capital cities in Europe and learning about printing in Art.

Rewards:

Class of the week is Doyle! Please keep an eye on our website for individual weekly awards. Most star points award is Tolkien class. They will be getting a full breakfast on Monday!

Laura, our school cook, is moving on to pastures new! She has been offered a job local to her home and in a bigger school. She is sad to be leaving but looking forward to a progression in her career. We wish her all the best in her new role and we will definitely miss her cheesecake!

After a Ready Steady Cook style interview process, we have appointed a new school cook- Kym. Kym will be joining us at half term. Meanwhile over the next two weeks we will be running a slightly different menu. Next week's outline is below:
