

English

Non-Fiction – In this unit, pupils will explore the Big Question: 'Which animal makes the toughest migration?' Pupils will read the interactive eBook, using the skills of skimming and scanning to find answers to questions and using the organisational features of the eBook to find information. Pupils will then plan and write a chronological report about a specific animal migration of their choice.

Maths

Students will start by revisiting equivalent fractions and will then learn about improper fractions and mixed numbers and how to convert between the two. Students will look at ordering fractions less than and greater than 1. Students will build on their knowledge of adding and subtracting fractions.

Rowling

Term 2 Curriculum Map

Art and DT – Sculptures & 3D – Interactive

installations. In this unit, pupils will identify and compare features of art installations. Pupils will explore how everyday 3D objects can create installation art. Pupils will then apply their knowledge of installation art to develop and evaluate their own installation art work to meet the criteria.

History – In this unit, students will explore what life was like in Tudor England. Pupils will use primary and secondary sources to make deductions and investigate about Henry VIII's wives. Pupils will then create a realistic inventory for a person living in Tudor times.

Music – 'Rock and Roll'

Students will look at the history of rock and roll music and listen to different examples of this. Students will learn and perform the hand jive, sing in tune and perform their actions and play the notes of the walking bass in the correct sequence.

RSE – In this unit, students will explore what puberty is and how this can affect this can have on your body. Pupils will be introduced to correct terms of different body parts and be able to identify that everyone develops at different rates.

PSHE – In this unit, pupils will look at healthy lifestyles and understand how to make healthy diet choices. Pupils will learn about different exercise and relaxation and explore the benefits this can have on their mental and physical health.

Geography – N/A

French – Pupils will be able to describe items of clothing and use appropriate determiners. Pupils will then be able to identify adjectival position in a sentence and describe their likes and dislikes with outfits.

Computing – In this unit students identify features of visual media. Pupils will capture video using a range of filming techniques and experiment with different camera angles to produce and edit their own video.

PE – In this unit, students will be able to replicate a jump shot used in handball. Pupils will then be able to perform a pivot to create space to pass or shoot and practice how to goal keep.

Science – Students will be focusing on plant biology during this term. They will look at seed dispersal and plant reproduction as well as planning and carrying out an investigation into the optimum conditions for seed germination.

RE –

Pupils will understand how Christians put their beliefs about Jesus' Incarnation into practice and understand different biblical texts. Pupils will then understand how Christians put their beliefs about Jesus' incarnation into practice in different ways in celebrating Christmas.